Briefly share one positive experience from this week

On Wed this week we had some extra time. It was study hall and a lot of the kids already had all their stuff done and didn't have anything else to do so i took them aside and played a couple of the brain break activites that we got in Methods class. they really enjoyed it and we all had a lot of fun.

Briefly share one problem or negative experience. Do you want assistance in dealing with this?

Do you have any other comments, questions or needs?
