Briefly share one positive experience from this week

Last week, I taught my students about different punctuation marks. I was sitting next to a little boy in chapel and helping him follow along in the hymnal. We read "Jesus is risen!" He turned to me and said, "Ms. Billos, there is an exclamation mark because THAT IS EXCITING!"
I love it!

Briefly share one problem or negative experience. Do you want assistance in dealing with this?

nothing really worth noting ;-)

Do you have any other comments, questions or needs?

I was not in the classroom on Friday because I had a conference here for my DCE internship.
