

Teacher Education Data (TED) Collection Cycle

Data is collected on teacher education candidates beginning with their first course and continuing through their program.

Educ 101 – Teaching as a Profession – instructors complete the Instructor Evaluation of Student (IEOS) form

Educ 201 – Introduction to Education - instructors complete the Instructor Evaluation of Student (IEOS) form

EDPS 210 – Educational Psychology - instructors complete the Instructor Evaluation of Student (IEOS) form. Cooperating teachers during the field experience complete the Short Form Evaluation

Psy 324 – Psychology of Exceptionality - Cooperating teachers during the field experience complete the Short Form Evaluation

Educ 424 – Differentiated Instruction - Cooperating teachers during the field experience complete the Short Form Evaluation

Educ 461 – Literacy Instruction, Assessment and Intervention or Educ 470 – Content Area Literacy - Cooperating teachers during the field experience complete the Long Form Evaluation

Student Teaching / Clinical Experience – The university supervisor and the cooperating teacher complete the Student Teaching Long Form Evaluation. The candidate completes a Video Self-Evaluation.

Candidates also complete a Conceptual Framework Evaluation at admission to the program, at admission to student teaching, prior to graduation, and during the spring of their first year of teaching.