

Adapted from readwritethink NCTE
 Oral Presentation
 Rubric

	Excellent (A) 3 points	Good (B+ to C) 2 points	Poor (C- and Below) 0 or 1 point	Points
Delivery	Speaks clearly so all can hear. Articulates ideas in a manner that is easy to understand.	Speaker could be clearer but is basically understandable. Successfully conveys ideas but in a manner that could be improved.	Speaks unclearly or not loud enough. Speaker is hard to follow
Content and Organization	Clearly articulates thesis. Presentation demonstrates rational organization. Budgets time well.	Thesis is present, but not well articulated. Presentation could be better organized. Presentation close to allotted time, but could be adhered to better.	This is unclear or not present. Presentation lacks organization. Presentation does not fall within time parameters.
Enthusiasm and Audience Engagement	Demonstrates clear interest in topic through the presentation. Responds well to audience questions.	Student could be more enthusiastic about topic. Ability to repond to audience could be improved.	Students lacks enthusiasm for topic. Does not adequately respond to audience questions.
Total Points:				