Cancellation Policy: This completed form is to be returned to your teacher no later than 3 weeks after the course has begun. Once paid, you may request a full refund of tuition for the first 5 business days and then 50% of the tuition until the end of the eighth week of classes. Registration for the Concordia Dual Credit course is separate from registration for the high school course. Any change in registration status must be made in accordance with Concordia's policies.

Withdrawing from a course: Requires written notification, including the student's signature and that of the principal or counselor. These notices may NOT be emailed, but can be faxed to (402) 643-3519.

Transferability: The Higher Learning Commission, North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, accredits Concordia University, Nebraska. Other institutions generally accept Concordia credit. Students are strongly recommended to check with the institution of their choice regarding the acceptance and application of transfer credit. It is the institution RECEIVING the credit that determines its ultimate acceptability.

The signatures below indicate understanding and acceptance of the terms above, verification of the accuracy of the information provided, and certification the signers are familiar with Concordia Dual Credit policies.
