elated: University Goals/Outcomes: Knowledge Analysis Select Select lembers involved with development of Plan: David Coe, Brian Gauthier, and Paul Holtorf Image: Comparison of Comparison	Department/Program/Unit: Theology, Philosophy, and Biblical Langages	Date:
 Iembers involved with development of Plan: David Coe, Brian Gauthier, and Paul Holtorf epartmental/Program/Unit Student Outcome: What student outcome from the departmental matrix will be sessess? (it is suggested that you cut and paste directly from the matrix. Outcomes should represent the bsolute priorities for learning- students must be able to do [this] when they finish our program). tate as follows: Students should be able to [action verb] [something]. tudents will effectively access, review, and analyze reference sources unique to the study of Holy Scripture nd theology. ackground: What factors caused you to choose this particular assessment outcome? If you chose this utcome because of a perceived problem, please explain. he department is seeking to assess how the topics of the course, Theo 361, equip students to implement and tegrate skills necessary for a thorough analysis of theology topics and of scholarly discussions about the ecology topics. uestion: What specific question(s) are you attempting to answer through assessing this student outcome? Mhat are you trying to find out? There may be more than one question, but no more than three.) Can a student demonstrate the ability to read and understand the material in an upper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, scholarly work in theology? 1. OBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student withen submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology; a. How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degre the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately	9.24.2020 epartmental/Program/Unit Student Outcome: What student outcome from the departmental matrix will be seesed? (It is suggested that you cut and paste directly from the matrix. Outcomes should represent the bsolute priorities for learning- students must be able to 6 (this) when they finish our program). tate as follows: Students should be able to [action verb] [something]. tudents will effectively access, review, and analyze reference sources unique to the study of Holy Scripture and theology. ackground: What factors caused you to choose this particular assessment outcome? If you chose this utcome because of a perceived problem, please explain. he department is seeking to assess how the topics of the course, Theo 361, equip students to implement and tlegrate skills necessary for a thorough analysis of theology topics and of scholarly discussions about the eology topics. Tuestion: What specific question(s) are you attempting to answer through assessing this student outcome? What are you trying to find out? There may be more than one question, but no more than three.] Can a student demonstrate the ability to accurately summarize the theological arguments put forward in an pper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, scholarly work in theology? 1. OBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student written submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology (featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the author's theological position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome VI: "Concerning the content of upper-level scholarly works in the dubes of the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-level scholarly theological works. The key concepts identified in the above sections o sessed? (It is suggested that you cut and paste directly from the matrix. Outcomes should represent the bsolute priorities for learning- students must be able to do [this] when they finish our program). tate as follows: Students should be able to [action verb] [something]. tudents will effectively access, review, and analyze reference sources unique to the study of Holy Scripture nd theology. ackground: What factors caused you to choose this particular assessment outcome? If you chose this utcome because of a perceived problem, please explain. he department is seeking to assess how the topics of the course, Theo 361, equip students to implement and tegrate skills necessary for a thorough analysis of theology topics and of scholarly discussions about the leology topics. Juestion: What specific question(s) are you attempting to answer through assessing this student outcome? What are you trying to find out? There may be more than one question, but no more than three.) Can a student demonstrate the ability to read and understand the material in an upper-level, scholarly work in theology? 1. OBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student withen submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology; 1. OBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student written submissions summarizing the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degree the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-level scholarly work in the oblay work in the oblay work in the oblay work in the oblay work in theology? 2. Can a student demonstrate the ability to understand the material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology? 3. OBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student will be table:
 ackground: What factors caused you to choose this particular assessment outcome? If you chose this utcome because of a perceived problem, please explain. he department is seeking to assess how the topics of the course, Theo 361, equip students to implement and tegrate skills necessary for a thorough analysis of theology topics and of scholarly discussions about the neology topics. uestion: What specific question(s) are you attempting to answer through assessing this student outcome? What are you trying to find out? There may be more than one question, but no more than three.) Can a student demonstrate the ability to read and understand the material in an upper-level, scholarly work theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to accurately summarize the theological arguments put forward in an pper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to accurately summarize the theological arguments put forward in an upper-level, scholarly work in theology? I. OBJECT* • What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student written submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology, featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the author's theological position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome VI: "Concerning the Third Use of the Law." a. How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degree the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-level scholarly theological works. The key concepts identified in the above sections of this document will serve as assessment points in the determination of a student's assessment level.<	assessed? (It is suggested that you cut and paste directly from the matrix. Outcomes shoul absolute priorities for learning- students must be able to do [this] when they finish our progr State as follows: Students should be able to [action verb] [something]. Students will effectively access, review, and analyze reference sources unique to the study	ld represent the ram).
 utcome because of a perceived problem, please explain. he department is seeking to assess how the topics of the course, Theo 361, equip students to implement and tegrate skills necessary for a thorough analysis of theology topics and of scholarly discussions about the reology topics. ruestion: What specific question(s) are you attempting to answer through assessing this student outcome? What are you trying to find out? There may be more than one question, but no more than three.) Can a student demonstrate the ability to read and understand the material in an upper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to accurately summarize the theological arguments put forward in an pper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, scholarly work in theology? CBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student written submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology, featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the author's theological position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome VI: "Concerning the Third Use of the Law." a. How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degree the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-leve		ou chose this Intestion: What specific question(s) are you attempting to answer through assessing this student outcome? What are you trying to find out? There may be more than one question, but no more than three.) Can a student demonstrate the ability to read and understand the material in an upper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to accurately summarize the theological arguments put forward in an upper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, cholarly work in theology? In OBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student written submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology, featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the author's theological position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome VI: "Concerning the Third Use of the Law." How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degre the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-level scholarly theological works. The key concepts identified in the above sections of this document will serve as assessment points in the determination of a student's assessment level. Include/attach a description/example of assessment tool to be used. How will data be collected? Artifacts will be collected from Theo 361. matysis of Artifacts: PERFORMANCE CRITERIA* - Discuss: How the artifacts will be analyzed (attach rubrics/scoring tools if used): A statistical analysis of student submissions for Theo 361, arriving at a mean score for	outcome because of a perceived problem, please explain. The department is seeking to assess how the topics of the course, Theo 361, equip studen integrate skills necessary for a thorough analysis of theology topics and of scholarly discuss	ts to implement and
 Can a student demonstrate the ability to read and understand the material in an upper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to accurately summarize the theological arguments put forward in an pper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, cholarly work in theology? Interconstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, cholarly work in theology? Interconstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, cholarly work in theology? Interconstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, cholarly work in theology. Interconstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, cholarly work in theology. Interconstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, cholarly work in theology, featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the author's theological position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome VI: "Concerning the Third Use of the Law." a. How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degre the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-level scholarly theological works. The key concepts identified in the above sections of this document will serve as assessment points in the determination of a student's assessment level. Include/attach a description/example of assessment tool to be used. Include/attach a description/example of assessment tool to be used. How will data be collected? Artifacts will be collected from Theo 361. Inalysis of Artifacts will be analyzed (attach rubrics/scoring tools if used): A s		student outcome?
 pper-level, scholarly work in theology? Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward in an upper level, cholarly work in theology? lethodology: OBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student written submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology, featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the author's theological position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome VI: "Concerning the Third Use of the Law." How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degre the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-level scholarly theological works. The key concepts identified in the above sections of this document will serve as assessment points in the determination of a student's assessment level. Include/attach a description/example of assessment tool to be used. How will data be collected? Artifacts will be collected from Theo 361. malysis of Artifacts: PERFORMANCE CRITERIA* - Discuss: How the artifacts will be analyzed (attach rubrics/scoring tools if used): A statistical analysis of student submissions for Theo 361, arriving at a mean score for the assignment. 	(What are you trying to find out? There may be more than one question, but no more than t	three.)
 Cholarly work in theology? International data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student written submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology, featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the author's theological position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome VI: "Concerning the Third Use of the Law." a. How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degre the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-level scholarly theological works. The key concepts identified in the above sections of this document will serve as assessment tool to be used. 2. How will data be collected? Artifacts will be collected from Theo 361. nalysis of Artifacts: PERFORMANCE CRITERIA* - Discuss: How the artifacts will be analyzed (attach rubrics/scoring tools if used): A statistical analysis of student submissions for Theo 361, arriving at a mean score for the assignment. How you will know if it is good (i.e. score required by % of students): A score of 80% or better will be 	Can a student demonstrate the ability to accurately summarize the theological argument upper-level, scholarly work in theology?	ts put forward in an OBJECT* - What data (i.e. artifact, exam score, detailed description of assignment) will be collected? Student written submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level scholarly work in theology, featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the author's theological position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome VI: "Concerning the Third Use of the Law." a. How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demonstrate to what degre the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intelligently assess the content of upper-level scholarly theological works. The key concepts identified in the above sections of this document will serve as assessment points in the determination of a student's assessment level.	3. Can a student demonstrate the ability to assess and evaluate the arguments put forward scholarly work in theology?	d in an upper level, nalysis of Artifacts: PERFORMANCE CRITERIA* - Discuss: How the artifacts will be analyzed (attach rubrics/scoring tools if used): A statistical analysis of student submissions for Theo 361, arriving at a mean score for the assignment. How you will know if it is good (i.e. score required by % of students): A score of 80% or better will be 	 Student written submissions summarizing the content of material from an upper-level theology, featuring terms and constructs, along with a critical assessment of the aut position. The basis for this assignment will feature the Formula of Concord, Epitome Third Use of the Law." a. How does this data address the assessment question? The data will demons the student has gained the ability to understand, accurately state, and intellig content of upper-level scholarly theological works. The key concepts identifi sections of this document will serve as assessment points in the determination assessment level. i. Include/attach a description/example of assessment tool to be used. 	el scholarly work in hor's theological VI: "Concerning the strate to what degree gently assess the ed in the above
 How the artifacts will be analyzed (attach rubrics/scoring tools if used): A statistical analysis of student submissions for Theo 361, arriving at a mean score for the assignment. How you will know if it is good (i.e. score required by % of students): A score of 80% or better will be
	1) How the artifacts will be analyzed (attach rubrics/scoring tools if used): A statistical ar submissions for Theo 361, arriving at a mean score for the assignment.	-

Submitted by: David Coe, Brian Gauthier, and Paul Holtorf Date: 9.24.2020 Assessment Committee Reviewed (Date):10/27/2020Department Chair notified of approval/or additional action needed:Approved 10/27/2020